NATIONAL MOBILITY EQUIPMENT DEALERS ASSOCIATION (NMEDA)

NMEDA is committed to providing automotive adaptive equipment solutions for people with disabilities through their Quality Assurance Program. Visit nmeda.com to discover how NMEDA works to improve the lives of people with disabilities.

MAIN MOBILITY

For more than 30 years, Main Mobility has helped disabled drivers regain their independence, offering solutions that help get them back on the road. Whether you're a disabled driver or passenger, find the mobility equipment or vehicle modifications that you need. They offer a full line of mobility equipment, including driving aids and new and used wheelchair vans from the top providers in the industry. Visit mainmobility.com for details.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY ADMINISTRATION (NHTSA)

Following a proven process can help you avoid costly mistakes when purchasing and modifying a vehicle with adaptive equipment. We suggest requesting a copy of the Department of Transportation's brochure, "Adapting Motor Vehicles For People With Disabilities." Visit nhtsa.gov for your copy.

MOBILITY SVM

Mobility SVM modifies full-size wheelchair-accessible General Motors trucks and SUVs with a wheelchair lift system that offers accessibility from either the driver or passenger side. This concept has given many wheelchair-bound drivers a solution that better suits their needs beyond the traditional minivan. Visit mobilitysvm.com for a closer look.

THE ASSOCIATION FOR DRIVER REHABILITATION SPECIALISTS (ADED)

ADED is devoted to helping individuals with disabilities locate driver evaluators and trainers who can conduct an assessment of a person's abilities (cognitive, perceptual, and physical) and adaptive equipment needs, an important step in the selection process. Visit aded.net for more information.

THE MOBILITY RESOURCE

Find the right solution to your specific vehicle mobility needs. Whether you're searching for adaptive equipment or a customized vehicle solution, The Mobility Resource is a network of mobility experts who can help find the right mobility solution for you. Visit themobilityresource.com to learn more.
